

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Gwinnett GOP and Greater Gwinnett GOP Women to Co-Sponsor Candidates Forum

The Gwinnett GOP Executive Committee and the Greater Gwinnett Republican Women have joined forces and will co-sponsor a candidate forum for some of the contested Republican races that affect Gwinnett County Voters.

According to Peg Murray, GGRW President, “We wanted to provide the voters with an opportunity to see and hear from prospective candidates, to help them make an informed decision at the polls.” And GOP Executive Committee member, Chet Hale said, “We are scheduling the event close to the primaries, so the information they receive will be current.”

The forum will take place on June 22 in the Theater of Collins Hill High School at 7:30 pm

The candidates will be questioned by a panel of local media personalities including Martha Zoller, Radio and TV talk show host; David Wickert AJC Gwinnett Reporter; Seth Weathers, President of Gwinnett Broadcasting Company; and BJ Van Gundy, Second Vice Chair of the State Republican Party.

The offices and candidates who will be featured include:

District Two County Commissioner: Candidates Lynette Howard, Jose Perez, and Keith Shewbert

District Four County Commissioner: Candidates John Heard, Tommy Hunter, Ron Silver, Tim Sullivan and Gerald Cagle

House Seat 101: Candidates Buzz Brockway, Jesse Jones

House Seat 102: Candidates Linda Carsten, Steve Allen, Keith Royal and B.J. Pak

House Seat 106: Candidates Brett Harrell and Warren Auld

Scheduling conflicts prevented candidates in other contested races from appearing.

For further inquiries call Peg Murray at 770-962-9540.